

Kobe Municipal Arboretum

zichi Lorentz 2010

Woodland Park

The Kobe Municipal Arboretum (Kōbe Shiritsu Shinrin Shokubutsuen?), also known as the Kobe City Forest Botanical Garden, is a 142.6-hectare botanical garden and arboretum located near Mount Maya

Kobe Municipal Arboretum

Kobe City, Japan

Located in the mountains north of the city. Can be reached within the hour. Great place to visit and relax.

The Kobe Municipal Arboretum (Kōbe Shiritsu Shinrin Shokubutsuen?), also known as the Kobe City Forest Botanical Garden, is a 142.6-hectare botanical garden and arboretum located near Mount Maya at 4-1 Nakaichiri-yama, Shimotanigami, Yammada-cho, Kita-ku, Kobe, Japan. It is operated by the city and open daily except Wednesdays; an admission fee is charged.

The arboretum was established in 1940 and now contains approximately 1,200 kinds of trees and shrubs from Japan as well as other parts of Asia, Australasia, Europe, and North America, with good collections of cherry trees, conifers, hydrangea, and rhododendrons.

http://tmp.dev-feel-kobe.info/_en/

WOODLAND PARK

WOODLAND PARK

WOODLAND PARK

Kobe Municipal Arboretum

Kobe City Japan